KALAHARI RESORT SCARES UP FRIGHTFUL FUN THIS HALLOWEEN WEEKEND

-Celebrate the weekend with Halloween Bowling, Oktoberfest fun, and a costume contest to win a Mystery Trip for Two-

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. (Oct. 19, 2009) – Kalahari Resort is celebrating Halloween weekend with a frighteningly fun mixture of German polkas and ghastly ghouls. Weekend festivities include activities for all ages and range from Halloween bowling to Oktoberfest entertainment.

Indoor Theme Park

Families visiting the Indoor Theme Park on October 31 can enjoy Halloween bowling from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. Kids 10 years and under can bowl for free in costume and receive a free piece of pizza and soft drink.

Nearby, the Worlds Away Indoor Theme Park Lounge is hosting a night of Oktoberfest entertainment with a selection of German beers and music by the Jason Rowe German Polka Band. From 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., visitors can enjoy a cold pint of the draft beers, featuring New Glarus Staghorn Oktoberfest, for only $3.

Kahunaville

To celebrate Halloween in style, Kahunaville is throwing a costume party featuring a DJ from 10:30 p.m. until close. There is no cover charge to the event, which features drink specials all night long. Kahunaville guests can compete in the costume contest for a grand prize of a Mystery Trip for Two. The second place winner will receive a One Night Stay in Kalahari Whirlpool Suite and third place receives a $100 Kalahari Gift Card.

A Frightfully Fun Weekend

Kalahari Resort is the ultimate Halloween weekend getaway for guests of all ages. Ivory Coast Lounge is serving up ghoulish drinks and treats for all that dress up in true Halloween spirit. Guests can escape the chilly October weather in Wisconsin's largest indoor waterpark, or treat themselves to one of many soothing spa and salon treatments at Spa Kalahari.
