KALAHARI RESORT UNVEILS 110,000-SQUARE-FOOT INDOOR THEME PARK TO OFFER AN UNPRECENTRED CLIMATE-CONTROLLED GETAWAY

- Kalahari Resort Continues to Expand Under-One-Roof Offerings as $20 Million Addition Connects Four Buildings -

WISCONSIN DELLS, Wis. (December 19, 2008) – The economy may be slowing, but the action at Kalahari Resort is high-octane, thanks to a $20 million investment. Kalahari Resort, located in Wisconsin Dells, Wis. which is known for its concentration of 18 indoor waterparks, today unveiled its 110,000-square-foot Indoor Theme Park which features a wide array of indoor activities including: a six-story Ferris wheel, multi-level go-cart track, a carousel, laser tag, ropes course and much more. The addition adds to Kalahari's plethora of indoor attractions which includes one of America's largest indoor waterparks.

The new Indoor Theme Park, which was opened with live appearances from Justice and Siren from NBC's hit show "American Gladiators," connects Kalahari Resort and Convention Center – which currently features a 125,000-square-foot indoor waterpark, 742 guest- rooms and suites, eight dining options, Spa Kalahari and Salon, three shopping outlets and a 100,000-square-foot convention center – to Damon's Grill and the 15-screen Desert Cinema via an indoor walkways to continue to offer distinctive "under-one-roof" entertainment.

"We're taking our entertainment offerings one step further to offer guests a unique climate-controlled getaway they won't find anywhere else," says Todd Nelson, president and owner of Kalahari Resorts, which is known for its innovative indoor and outdoor waterparks.
