Spa

While the children mingle with the Easter Bunny, parents can escape to the spa for a treatment inspired by an island retreat. Spring, a time of new beginnings for mind and body, brings treatments infused with mango and citrus oils. The Tropical Island Massage ($105) relaxes while the Body Scrub ($105) leaves a glowing swimsuit worthy complexion and pedicure leaves feet in flip-flop shape. March also brings the March Girlfriend's Getaway ($599/night) which includes an overnight stay in a Desert or Hut room, two massages, two facials, two pedicures and champagne and chocolate service.

Activities

At 125,000 square feet, kids know they'll find one-of-a-kind thrills like the FlowRider surfing ride and Master Blaster uphill water roller coaster in one of America's largest indoor waterparks. But, during Easter weekend, they'll also find fun outside the waterpark with a visit from the Easter Bunny, an egg hunt, crafts, cookie decorating and more.

Guests can secure the best available room rates by booking online at www.KalahariResorts.com.
