

KALAHARI RESORT- OHIO
INDOOR AND OUTDOOR WATERPARKS

~ Leaving Others High & Dry ~

Indoor Waterpark Features – 173,000 square feet, America’s largest indoor waterpark

- Texlon Roof* The “intelligent” roof system creates a comfortable vacation environment, allowing natural light which enables real tropical foliage to grow and softens acoustic conditions. Guests can also catch a year-round tan on Kalahari’s sun deck.
- Wave Pool* Guests can grab a raft and be swept away by the rocking waves of this 12,000-square-foot Wave Pool.
- Swahili Swirl* This behemoth bowl twirls two to four guests at a time through its 60-foot diameter bowl.
- Cheetah Mat Racers* The Cheetah Chase promises to bring out the competitive side of waterpark lovers. The region’s only four-lane slalom racer slides feature rolls and drops throughout its 55-foot decline.
- Tanzanian Twister* Take a whirl on the Tanzanian Twister. It's a zippy trip down a zoomin' flume into a vortex that shoots out into the cool waters below.
- Rippling Rhino* At 400 feet long, this enclosed slide twists whisks rides outside the building and is Kalahari’s longest tube ride.
- Shooting Star
Water Basketball* Vacationers who love a challenge will jump at the chance to shoot hoops in Kalahari’s 3,700-square-foot basketball pool.
- FlowRider I & II* More than 150,000 guests have enjoyed surfing Kalahari’s original FlowRider, an attraction that has made surfing a popular sport in the upper Midwest. Kalahari has added a second FlowRider – a wave-in-a-box with 50,000 gallons of water flowing per minute which simulates the intensity of a five-foot wave – to continue to captivate its guests’ sense of adventure.
- Kids Safari* An interactive play area for children ages six and under features slides, net crawls, tunnels and interactive water toys. The feature is designed to have 100 percent visibility so parents can keep an eye on their children and easily see them from every angle. Surrounded by only 12 inches of water, Kids Safari is one-of-a-kind feature.
